

UEEN3433/UEEN3123
TCP/IP Network
Application Development

Briefing

Welcome!

- My Name: JAMES OOI
- My Email: ooieh@utar.edu.my
- My Office: FE59(1), Level 8, KB Block

Please make appointment prior to consultation.

Consultation Hours

- Tuesday
 - 10:00am to 1.00pm
- Friday
 - 10:30am to 11:30am

Please make appointment prior to consultation.

Mode of Delivery

- Lecture
 - 3 hours per week for 11 weeks
 - Week 1 – 4, 6 – 12
 - No lecture on Week 5, 13 & 14
- Practical
 - 2 hours per week for 9 weeks
 - Week 3 – 4, 6, 8 – 13
 - No practical on Week 1, 2, 5, 7, 14

Assessments

- Coursework 50%
 - Test 15%
 - Practical Test 20%
 - Assignment 15%
- Examination 50%
 - 2 hours, closed-book
 - Answer 3 compulsory questions, 1 out of 2 elective questions

Pre-Requisite

- ET - UECS1643 Fundamentals of Programming (January 2012 to January 2015 Intakes) OR
- ET – UEEN1043 Object-Oriented Concepts and Programming Techniques (May 2015 Intake onwards) OR
- SE - UECS1043 Object-Oriented Application Development (Jan 2013 and May 2013 Intakes) OR
- SE - UECS1044 Object-Oriented Application Development (Oct 2013 Intake onwards)
- A good foundation in Object-Oriented Programming is essential in this course.

Ground Rules for Lectures

- Kindly pay full attention during lecture.
 - Theory & concepts that you need to understand will be presented during lecture.
 - Practical demonstrations may also be conducted during lecture.
 - Do NOT disturb other students during lecture.
 - Do NOT spend your time doing your FYP or studying other courses during lecture.

Ground Rules for Practicals

- Kindly attempt all practical questions given
 - Practical classes are generally meant for you to attempt the questions given yourself.
 - However, if you face any problems in attempting the practical questions, kindly seek my assistance.
 - Do NOT spend your time on your FYP or practicals of other courses!
 - Do NOT spend your time watching movies or playing games!
 - Where necessary, practical demonstrations may also be conducted